Internship and Service Placements Abroad in International/Global Studies, NGO Development and Human Rights

Looking for international placement opportunities in 2021?
Kaya has supported, ethical programs where you can gain experience while making a difference!

PLACEMENTS INCLUDE

Fair Trade in Ecuador
Travel to Ecuador and join a Fair Trade internship in the Mindo Cloud Forest for a unique chocolate-related project. Focus on sustainable economic development, cultural preservation and heritage conservation by working directly with indigenous farming families.

Human Rights Advocacy in South Africa
South Africa is committed to building a human rights-based society, making it the ideal location to gain an understanding of human rights violations, challenges and potential solutions. Gain experience in law, human rights, immigration, and more.

NGO Development in Thailand
Enhance your knowledge of the international development sphere while using your own skills and experience to forward sustainable economic and social development initiatives in education, care for the elderly, children's rights and public health.

...and many more!
