

Welcome to Kaya

As you explore your options for global engagement and international education, we invite you to discover the world on a program with Kaya.

For over a decade, Kaya has guided thousands of students as they engage in structured and supported international programs in a wide variety of fields. On our programs, students immerse themselves in local cultures and grow as educated, compassionate global citizens while at the same time supporting sustainable initiatives that benefit communities on the ground.

Take your studies to the next level, venture off the beaten path, and participate in an unforgettable, real-world experience. Find out more about your options today.
